

Financial education for today's Rising Stars.

Jovia has been helping our members achieve their financial goals for over 80 years. But we're more than just your local credit union. We're committed to supporting young members with financial education, youth accounts and innovative tools that make learning about money fun.

Financial education for the win.

Budgeting Like a Pro Player: Make a budget by creating a game plan that provides the playbook to manage your money.

Savings – Your Financial Slam Dunk: Set goals to put away cash each month. Creating good saving and spending habits sets you up for the big win to enjoy the game of life!

Building Bright Financial Habits: Success starts with practice. Reinforcing good financial habits will lead to a promising future.

Teamwork for the win

Parents can benefit, too! Managing money is a team sport, and everyone has a role to play. Parents and teens can work together to identify saving and spending goals so they can ball on a budget.
